

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Working your way to the top.

Learning Outcome

Use information about personal and professional plans for the future in social and work situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use words that end with -e.
- I can say and use going and gonna.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Ask your partner:

- What type of job would you like to have in the future?
- What kinds of skills do you need?

Let's Explore!

Listen to Peter and Vanessa chat about her job application. Will her time in cooking school pay off?

* To "pay off" means that something results in benefits or can be useful in the future.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Hey, did you hand in your résumé and reference letter at the restaurant?
- Vanessa: Yes, and I filled in the application while I was there.
- Peter: It would be great to get that work experience, especially as a cook.
- Vanessa: The restaurant owner said he's going to contact me this week.
- Peter: I see.
- Vanessa: I'm going to call them in a couple days if I don't hear back.
- Peter: Good idea. You have nothing to lose.
- Vanessa: The job ad said it was a full-time position. You know I can only work part-time. What do you think?
- Peter: If you are the best candidate for the job, they might hire you anyway. You're going to use all those skills you learned at cooking school.
- Vanessa: That's right, and I can add the job to my résumé. Employers always want to see that you have experience.
- Peter: True. Nice work, Vanessa. You're always thinking ahead.
- Vanessa: I'm not just a pretty face.

Let's Practice!

Let's practice words with the silent e.

Instructions: Underline the silent e. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. experience
2. have
3. face
4. reference
5. Did you hand in your résumé and reference letter at the restaurant?
6. You have nothing to lose.
7. Employers always want to see that you have experience.
8. I'm not just a pretty face.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa is waiting for an answer from the restaurant.

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

1. I'm (goed / going / goes) to call the restaurant in a couple days if I don't hear back.
2. The restaurant owner said he's (is / got / gonna) contact me this week.
3. You're (go / got / going) to use all those skills you learned at cooking school.

Extension Activity

Research a job you would like to have. What kind of skills do you need?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online and research a job you would like.
- Make a list of the skills and qualifications you need for the job.
- Write three sentences that explain why you are the perfect candidate for the job.
- Read the sentences to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I read about jobs online.

☐ ☐

I make a list of skills and qualifications.

☐ ☐

I write sentences using skills and qualifications.

☐ ☐

I read the sentences to a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- not just a pretty face (expression): to be both attractive and intelligent e.g. I'm not just a pretty face.
- nothing to lose (expression): when you cannot make things worse
e.g. I am going to talk to my boss because I have nothing to lose.
- to think ahead (verb): to consider or think about the future
e.g. You are always thinking ahead.
- skills (noun): abilities that come from training, experience, or practice e.g. What skills do you have?
- to hire (verb): to give work or a job to a person
e.g. If you have experience, they might hire you.
- candidate (noun): a person who is applying for a job
e.g. There were many candidates for the position.

Learning Points

The Silent E

There are 5 spelling rules for the silent e.

Rules	Example
1. A final e makes the vowel say its name.	cut, cute
2. English words don't end in v or u. The e after v or u does not affect pronunciation.	have, blue
3. Silent e after the letter c and g "soften" their sounds.	rage, cabbage, face, experience
4. Every syllable must have a vowel. The final syllable can be pronounced without a vowel but every syllable must have a vowel.	tackle, pickle
5. Sometimes the silent final e has no purpose.	are, were

