Let's Start!

Time to get more work experience!

Learning Outcome

Use information about personal and professional plans for the future in social and work situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk about plans and intentions.
- I can give advice.

Ask your partner:

- What kind of job would you like to have in the future?
- Do you prefer a full-time job or a part-time job? Why?

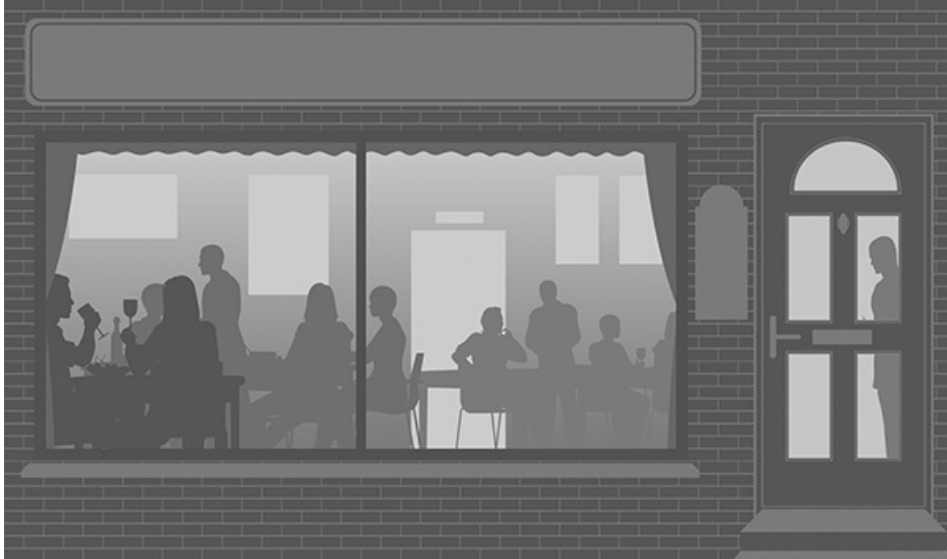

Let's Explore!

Peter and Vanessa talk about work. His job sounds stressful. He should take it easy!

* When you "take it easy", you are not stressed about anything.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Peter, what's up?
Peter: My job is stressful at the moment. I have a lot of deadlines to meet.
Vanessa: You should take it easy!
Peter: I intend to! My boss is easygoing. How's work for you?
Vanessa: I'm still busy with school. They want me to have some work experience in the kitchen. I'm going to send some applications soon.
Peter: Which restaurant are you going to work for?
Vanessa: There is an opening at a great place nearby. The chef there is very good.
Peter: That would be a great opportunity to hone your skills!
Vanessa: Yeah ... I'm going to practice my craft as much as possible.
Peter: You should totally apply! I hope it works out.
Vanessa: Me, too.
Peter: Maybe you could open a restaurant here!

Let's Practice!

Do you have a game plan? Always be prepared!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

Learning Points

Talking About Plans and Intentions

You use the Present Continuous tense and be going to to talk about future actions and events.

You use the Present Continuous to talk about arrangements and plans.

You use be going to to put an emphasis on an intention (deciding to do something).

e.g., I'm sending some applications soon. vs. I'm going to send some applications soon.
You can use intend to in place of be going to.

Examples:

- I'm going to practice my craft as much as possible.
- I'm also thinking of moving back to Cambridge.
